

QUALITY, ENVIRONMENT, OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

Apcotex Industries Limited, Located at plot no.3/1, MIDC Industrial Area Taloja, engaged in business of manufacturing of Synthetic Latex and Synthetic Rubber is committed to satisfaction of domestic and international customers, Prevention of ill-health & injury of every individual involved in our activities, prevention of pollution and continual improvement in effectiveness of our QEOHS management system and performance.

To achieve this, we commit ourselves to:

- Comply with all the applicable compliance obligations to which organization is subscribing, including those related to environmental aspects and OH&S hazards.
- Compliance with all requirements related to products and services to enhance customer satisfaction.
- Integration of the responsible care principles across our business value chain.
- Eliminate, minimize or control the environmental aspects, improve occupational health and reduce safety hazards & risks.
- Incorporate suitable technologies and global best practices for continual improvement in quality & EOH&S performance through conservation of energy & natural resources, prevention of pollution, prevention of injury, Ill-health of the employees.
- Strengthening of skills, competencies and safety awareness of all employees and contract workmen.
- Periodic review for ensuring the adequacy, suitability and effectiveness of the QEOH&S management system.

Date: 01.01.2017
Rev.03

Abhiraj Choksey
Managing Director

apcotex industries limited